

Two Statisticians were selected to cover the full cycle of statistical activities from sampling, data collection, data management and manipulation to data dissemination for specific statistical subject matters of the SIT2008 (The Italian IT Sector) project. The persons will work under the supervision of the Project Scientific Committee.

The comparative evaluation Based on educational, academic and professional qualifications and job interview saw as appropriate:

- Silvia Facchinetti, Ph.D;
- Marta Nai Ruscone, Dott.

The Project Scientific Committee act the availability of two research grants for Statistician – researcher.

Evaluation of Silvia Facchinetti

- ◆ PhD in Statistics, and a good knowledge of applied statistics;
- ◆ Experience with MS Office package and familiarity with current data processing technology.
- ◆ Excellent knowledge of and practical experience with statistical data analyses, including knowledge of statistical software packages (SAS).
- ◆ Good knowledge of sampling theory and of the definitions and terminology employed;
- ◆ Ability to draft technical notes and reports, and correspondence on routine statistical matters.
- ◆ Good interpersonal and communication skills;
- ◆ Ability to work well in a team and in a multicultural environment with a minimum of supervision;
- ◆ Good knowledge of English language.

Evaluation of Marta Nai Ruscone

- ◆ Advanced university degree in Statistics, and a good knowledge of applied statistics and information technology;
- ◆ Experience with systems to manage large computerised databases databases and MS Office package and familiarity with current data processing technology.
- ◆ Excellent knowledge of and practical experience with statistical data analyses, including knowledge of statistical software packages (SAS).
- ◆ Good knowledge of sampling theory and of the definitions and terminology employed;
- ◆ Ability to draft technical notes and reports, and correspondence on routine statistical matters.
- ◆ Good interpersonal and communication skills;
- ◆ Ability to work well in a team and in a multicultural environment with a minimum of supervision;
- ◆ Good knowledge of English language.

Assago, 7 June 2008

ESeC Comparative Evaluation Committee

Paola Maddalena Chiodini
(President)

Giancarlo Manzi

Flavio Verrecchia

